SELECTING A CRUISE: Form A: Participant's Application (continued)

1. NOAA's primary interest in this program is the way in which teachers will incorporate the experience into their classroom activities and help others do the same. How will you use this experience to benefit your students and colleagues? (Note: This is the most important selection criteria.)

2. Describe your experience with and ability writing your own classroom activities. Be specific and offer examples.

3. What type of project would you prefer to join? Explain the reasoning behind your choice.

4. Discuss your ability to adapt to the physical and personal demands of life onboard a ship.

The research projects undertaken by r/v Shearwater are available on the Internet at <http://channelislands.noaa.gov/edu/tas.html>.

A) Please list below any restrictions to dates of the ROV cruise aboard R/V Shearwater. The scheduled research is scheduled from September 24 through October 5, 2007. It is anticipated that you will participate in one leg of the cruise, which lasts about 5 days (depending on weather and supply replenishment). Available Dates:

---

B) Nature of the research conducted that you are most interested in:

---

C) Do you have a preference as to where the ship operates? Preferred Ports/Area (Ventura or Santa Barbara Harbors):

---

D) How long are you comfortable being away at sea? Preferred length of cruise:

Completed application packets must be received by September 6, 2007.

Send completed applications to: NOAA's Teacher at Sea Program, Channel Islands National Marine Sanctuary, 3600 South Harbor Blvd., suite 111 Oxnard, CA 93035. Include Form A with the attached sheet, and Forms B and C in their sealed envelopes. Please note that you cannot be selected for the program until your medical history form has been approved by the NOAA Medical Officer.

Placements will be made approximately two months prior to the sailing date.

PAPERWORK REDUCTION ACT INFORMATION

NOAA conducts the Teacher at Sea Program in order to promote oceanographic and related education. The information obtained from the application will be used to select the teachers who will be accepted for participation in the program, and an application is required for acceptance. The information submitted on this form will not be treated confidentially. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1 hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to NOAA's Teacher at Sea Program, Office of Marine and Aviation Operations, 8403 Colesville Road, Suite 500, Silver Spring, MD 20910.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.
